Looking for a Few Good Men??

Geneva, IL: State Street Dance Studio, located at 9N. Fourth St. Has the men to put your dancing in motion! Look no further, State Street Dance Studio has five instructors who embody professionalism at its best.

Carl Corry is a 20 year veteran to The Joffrey Ballet in New York City. He held the Assistant Ballet Master position between the years of 1975 to 1995. Adding on to his talents, in 1998, Mr Corry began certification in pilates becoming certified by Janita Lopez and world renowned Romona Kryzanowska.

Steven Norman is a former soloist of 13 years with the San Francisco Ballet Theatre, traveling the world to London, Paris, Athens, Belfast, Copenhagen and Spain. He also holds a position as a staff member at Northern Illinois University teaching Ballet.

Altin Naska is a former soloist with Istanbul State Opera/Ballet and Istanbul City Theater in Turkey and principal with Tirane State Opera/Ballet in his native Albania. In 2003, Altin received Albania's highest artistic achievement award for choreography and contributions to Albanian culture overseas. He is currently a dance master and choreographer, as well as Director of the Dance Chicago International exchange program and Dance Chicago new talent workshop.

Alvin Ramirez started his dance training with Sam Renzetti at age sixteen. He has performed in countless productions and competitions all over the country. His most recent performances include being a finalist for America's Best Dance Team in Los Angeles for MTV. Alvin also had a cameo appearance with The Black Eyed Peas on the Oprah show.

Otto Konrad has been a ballroom dance instructor for fifty years and has taught in studios throughout Chicago and the suburbs. He trained with the Fred Astaire and Arthur Murray Dance Studios mastering the advanced levels for smooth and Latin dances.
